Morgan began his recruiting and staffing career at one of the world's largest recruiting firms. Quickly establishing himself as a top producer, he ultimately attained a #25 worldwide ranking. Parlaying this experience to a startup, Chicago-based recruiting and staffing firm, Morgan ushered in substantial company growth – as the largest revenue producer, as a developer of training materials and techniques, and as an innovator who expanded project scopes to include Sarbanes-Oxley compliance and ERP optimization. Under his guidance, Torrey & Gray has become a leader in the placement of top talent in ICAAP, Economic Capital and Dodd-Frank reporting positions.

Morgan is a co-founder of Torrey & Gray and a graduate of Chicago's North Park University. He is an active member of the Illinois CPA Society, the North Park University Business Advisory Council and American Payroll Association.
